COMMITTEE REPORTS

Hospitality: Pat Fox thanked everyone for all the yummy food and that the book was being passed around.

Membership: Bobbie Tarkiainen had no updates this month.

Sunshine Sue: Bonnie Post had nothing to report.

Newsletter: Sharon Weekly volunteered to cover the newsletter for the month of August.

Community Sewing: Elaine Thompson McGee had nothing to report.

Raffle Quilt 2023 "Mocha Mountains": Sue Gross encouraged people to get tickets from her to sell. Raffle Quilt will be hung at the fair and then will be taken to Morris Thompson Center to hand for the rest of the tourist season.

Sew Flurries: Mary Olson is the chairperson for this event. Dates for Sew Flurries are September 16-23 at the Lion's Building at the Fairgrounds. Looking for individuals to teach classes.

Tanana Valley State Fair: Tricha gave an update on the fair and a big thank you to Diana Crawford for helping with the hangers for the quilts. Tricha reminded everyone that you must enter your quilt electronically by Friday evening at 7pm. Kat Helmuth will put a post on our Facebook Page. Kristen Brown has a sign-up sheet for volunteers and said that almost all the spots were filled.

Small Quilt Auction: Elizabeth Shapland will be at the fair on entry day between 3-4pm for any last-minute small quilts.

Block of the Month: We will do the drawing in August to get more bird block entries.

OLD BUSINESS

CFQG Brochure: There was some discussion about updating the design of our guild's brochure. Karyn

Janssen suggested that we pay a professional to re-design our brochure.

President Diana would like to bring the suggestion to the next board meeting to discuss further details and bring the ideas back to the general membership meeting.

Shipping to Villages: Mary Olson gave an update on what has been sent out to the villages. Several dozen boxes of fabric, patterns, and supplies have been sent out including some sewing machines.

NEW BUSINESS/ ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Bazaars: Do we want to do any bazaars this year? What bazaars do we want to do? This will be Sharon

Weekly's last year coordinating all of the items for the bazaar and getting all the registration done for bazaars so ladies we have another volunteer need that will need to be filled. We have done several in the past and there are several new ones over the last few years. A suggestion was made to list the different bazaars, the cost for each one, and what money we have made at certain bazaars in the past. This information will be available at the next meeting for the membership to review.

Break @ 07:36 pm

Back @ 08:01 pm

FAIR

Thank you to all our volunteers for another successful fair. From hangings racks, entry day, judging day, hanging day, small quilt auction, ticket sales, and shows to final pick up, we pulled together and made this event a great way to showcase all the wonderful talent in our community.

A BIG THANKS to Trisha Immonan and her helper Veronica Belton

The TVSF Quilt Show wants to recognize our generous sponsors, whose donations contributed to the success of the show. Please patronize these vendors and mention how we value their support.

SEW FLURRIES

Don't forget to mark your calendars September 16-22, for a chance to take a class, caught up with old friends and complete your sewing projects. This is a fun event to hang out with other quilters and talk about sewing. Mary Olson will have more information at the August meeting.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Please see the website. August block is the same as July. If you have time sew up one of those cute little birds.
