Board Meeting

CFQG BOARD MEETING MINUTES October 13, 2026

The meeting was called to order at 5:30 by President Diana Wariner.
Members present: Diana Wariner, Sonja Zastrow, Sharon Weekley, Bobbie Tarkiainen, Trish Immonan, Carol Moore and Emiko Sawyer
Proposed budget was discussed. Bobbi was able to answer questions raised. Having the fiscal year from Nov 1 to October 31, causes distortion when comparing years because not all transactions get recorded in the fiscal year they apply to. Consensus is that we need to change the fiscal year to be the calendar year.

Martha Hocking has agreed to put her name in for nomination for Secretary, but we still have no candidate for President.

Emiko Sawyer presented some ideas about how the guild could connect with the military community. She feels there are many who would be interested. The Spouse's Club is sponsoring an event January 16 in the Bentley Mall with representatives from various organizations. Trish Immonan volunteered to take the lead in organizing this. Emiko also had ideas about using social media platforms other than Facebook to advertise the Guild events.

Annual dinner has 41 reserved seats. Bobbie is providing the prize for the Fabric challenge. Guild is providing dessert. Vote was for cookies over a cake as being easier to manage.
Meeting adjourned at 6:25 p.m.

- BROARD AGREED WE WILL HAVE GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING ONLY IF WE HAVE A PRESIDENT

Thank You to our Retiring Board Members!

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to our retiring board members for their dedication, leadership, and countless hours of volunteer service.
Diana Wariner – President, 4 years
Carol Moore – Secretary, 2 years
Trisha Immonen – First Director, 2 years
Our guild has grown, and we have enjoyed so many wonderful events and opportunities along the way. None of this would have been possible without your time, commitment, guidance, and willingness to volunteer.
Thank you for the difference you have made in our guild and for helping make it the wonderful community it is today. Your contributions are truly appreciated, and you will always be an important part of our guild family!
With heartfelt appreciation,
Your Guild Members

October 20, 2026

The meeting was called to order at 6:55 pm by President Diana Wariner
Thank you to Sonja for an amazing dinner!
Reminder that candidates for President and First Director (non-monetary donations) are still needed.
Treasurer report: No report. Budget will be discussed in November
Block of the Month: 16 blocks won by Martha Hocking. Nov block is a Christmas present with Christmas fabric. Easy paper pieced, instructions available.
Fiber Fest: Kat Helmuth reports it was fabulous! Several people who would like to join the guild and a 6 yr old boy who discovered sewing. Displayed 2 quilts tops that were made. Might be able to have a table to sell stuff next year.
Workshop: Corlis Taylor - Maria Shell tentatively scheduled for March 26-28, 2027. Her minimum teaching commitment is 3 days @ $1200/day so Corlis will take a reaffirmation vote at Nov meeting to make sure we can make this commitment. Will talk to board about subsidy. It was pointed out that weekend is Easter, may change date.
Community Sewing: Marcia Bryant – Met last Monday with only Marcia and Elaine Thompsen McGee. Would like to do online survey to determine best day to meet.
Election of Officers: question raised about co-presidents. Clarification by Parliamentarian Pat Fox – State requires a President of Record but can be assisted by others. Trish Immonan volunteered to run for President (with the understanding if she gets a job in Anchorage she would be moving in the Spring) to be backed up by Coleen Turner, Poppy Bleu Prino volunteered to run for First Director. Slate presented - Trish Immonen President, Martha Hocking Secretary and Poppy Blue Prino First Director. No nominations from floor. Slate accepted and approved.
ANNOUNCEMENTS: Pat Fox found a survey from 1992 in guild paperwork and says “nothing has changed” President Trish asked for volunteers to present future meetings. A project you are proud of, A project that gave you problems and who rescued you and _____?_____. Marcia Brant volunteered for November, Corlis Taylor for December.

CFQG General Meeting Minutes
September 15, 2026

The meeting was called to order at 7:15 by President Diana Wariner
Welcome to Guests AnnMarie, Sarah, Twyla, and Andie
August minutes: Dorothy Stella moved to approve, Trish Immonan seconded. Minutes approved.
Treasurer report: No report. Budget will be discussed in November
COMMITTEE REPORTS
Hospitality: Clipboard is being circulated for November meeting.
Raffle Quilt 2026: "Forever Winter" will be at Morris Thompson Center with Tickets available until October.
Remember that books stay together, do not remove staple. Keep Track and return stubs to Pat Fox. Please make sure all stubs for tickets sold have name and phone number.
Sew Flurries: Mary Olson - Lion's Club (fairgrounds) 9/17 to 9/22 10 am to 6 pm Potluck Sunday 9/20. 5 classes available, see newsletter and website. Supply lists on website. Bring scraps to share for Sharon's class. Set up will be at 8:30 am. Veronica Belton is accepting donations for auction table. Tablet & credit card reader transferred to Carolyn Weaver who will try to get it working.
Tanana Valley Fair: 2026 Veronica Belton and Trich Immonan - 50 quilt entries. Changes in judging got positive reviews! Last show at 8:30 worked well. Thanks to volunteers who registered 437 hours. Total attendance 1,037 with 734 viewer's choice ballots submitted.
Small Quilt Auction: Jennifer Pearson – Profit was $1,280. Veronica Belton's Northern Lights entry got highest bid and Veronica raised the most $ with 5 submissions.
Bazaar at Fair: – Sharon Weekley reports that 89 potholders were sold, total $1,347
Workshop: Corlis Taylor & Sonja Zastrow – Carol McConahy class had 8 attending, 8 Star Event Center was a great location with carts to bring machines and supplies to classroom. Did not make a profit due to low attendance. Need to do more advertising, possibly to facebook events. Kat reminded us that it is important to share on facebook to your page to expand visibility and reach. Yes, the Guild has funds and we can invest in our own learning, but we also need to be responsible to the community as a non-profit organization. Check out the link on our website to Maria Shell's utube for next spring class.
OLD BUSINESS
Board Positions open for next year President, Secretary & First director (donations), vote in October Karyn Janssen (for parliamentarian Pat Fox) urged members to participate, possibly pair with newer member to take an o<ice. Sarah Milas

I am originally from Michigan and have lived in Alaska since 2019. I first learned about the guild through the fair.

I enjoy sewing, crocheting, and traveling. I grew up sewing with my grandma, which is where my love of sewing began. I am looking forward to improving my pattern-reading skills so I can take on more complex projects and continue growing as a quilter.

We are so happy to welcome Sarah to the Cabin Fever Quilters' Guild! We look forward to getting to know her, sharing our love of quilting, and creating many wonderful projects together.

Welcome, Sarah!

Fabric and Cutting for One Block

Use red and green Christmas fabrics for the wrapping paper and ribbon. For the background, choose white-on-white fabric or a holiday print that reads as white.

Sewing

Make some blocks with red wrapping paper and green bows, and others with green wrapping paper and red bows. Press the seams between the wrapping paper and ribbon toward the paper. This will make it easier to attach the bow section. Note that the top and bottom borders are slightly narrower than the side borders.

Special Recipe by Founding Member

Mary Beth Smetzer's Buttermilk Cinnamon Rolls

The Alaska Cook Book, published in 1898 for prospectors bound for the Klondike, outlines the basic technique for baking cinnamon and raisin rolls from sweetened bread dough, fattened with lard and studded with currants or raisins. Alaskans still love cinnamon rolls. Mary Beth Smetzer, an editor with the Fairbanks Daily News-Miner, is famous among her friends and colleagues for these giant buttermilk specimens and has even baked them (six at a time, in a toaster oven) in a private home in Japan, while chaperoning a class trip. Her recipe makes two full pans, 24 large rolls. But rather than halve the recipe (easy to do), Mary Beth typically gives the second dozen away (really easy to do).

DOUGH

2 tablespoons active dry yeast
1/2 cup warm water
1 1/3 cups corn oil
3 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 quart buttermilk, scalded and cooled
12 to 14 cups bread flour (about 5 pounds)

Dissolve the yeast in the warm water and set aside. In a very large bowl, mix together the oil, eggs, sugar, and salt with a whisk. Add the buttermilk and dissolved yeast, and blend well. Start adding flour, 1 or 2 cups at a time, beating well with a wooden spoon and using your hands when the batter becomes too stiff to stir. When almost all the flour has been added, turn the dough onto a flat surface and knead for 5 to 10 minutes or until the dough becomes smooth and elastic. Place the dough in a large, clean bowl, cover with a clean dish towel, and set in a warm place to rise until doubled in bulk.

Punch the dough down, cut in half, cover, and allow to rest for about 10 minutes. Lightly butter two 12-by-17-inch baking sheets. Roll out half of the dough into a rectangle about 20 inches long and 1/2 inch thick. For the filling, spread with half the butter. Mix the sugar and cinnamon together. Sprinkle with half the cinnamon sugar and enough raisins to suit. Roll the dough into a cylinder and pinch together along the long edge. Slice into 12 rolls and space them apart on one of the baking sheets. Repeat with the remaining dough and filling. Cover the rolls with a dish towel and let rise until they have nearly doubled in bulk and filled up the spaces on the sheet.

Preheat the oven to 375°F.

Bake the cinnamon rolls for 16 to 20 minutes, until lightly browned, switching sheets between the top and bottom racks midway through the baking for even browning and baking. Meanwhile make the icing: Beat the cream cheese and milk or cream until light and blended. Add the powdered sugar to taste, then stir in the vanilla. Cool the cinnamon rolls for about 10 minutes before icing.

Makes 24 large cinnamon rolls.

FILLING

1/4 cup butter, softened
1 cup granulated sugar (or 1/2 cup granulated plus 1/2 cup brown)
1 1/2 tablespoons ground cinnamon
About 2 cups raisins

ICING

8 ounces cream cheese, softened
2 tablespoons milk or cream
About 1/2 cup powdered sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
