

NORTHWOODS BOOK ARTS GUILD

Announcing Paper and Fabric Marbling Workshops

Featuring Guest Artist Pietro Accardi

The Northwoods Book Arts Guild is excited to present five workshops by world renowned marbling artist, book binder, and handmade box designer, Pietro Accardi.

Accardi founded his own bindery, "La Legatoria del Sole" in Turin, Italy. Later, he and his wife, Vanessa, founded Accardi Book Arts Studio and bindery, in Gardnerville, Nevada. They are dedicated to preserving traditional handmade books and marbling. He has taught paper and fabric marbling at numerous venues throughout the U.S. including FOBA, Newport Paper Book Arts Festival, and the San Francisco Center for the Book.

Workshop Fees Per Class: $165 Members / $185 Non-Members This does NOT include materials fee. Materials fees must be paid at time of registration.

Marbling on Fabric

Saturday May 16, 10am - 5pm

Lions Building at the Tanana Valley Fairgrounds

Materials Fee: $45 Participants will learn to marble on cotton fabric that has been cut, washed and primed. Participants will have the opportunity to practice on paper first.